Public Space

Project details

49 neon secrets were once hidden in a forgotten square outside Leerdam city centre. 49 Neon Secrets is a geometric installation by artist Marijke de Goey in the 1990s. Since its establishment, public opinion in Leerdam has been divided. Studio BLAD was commissioned to redesign the square to bring back part of the city and its collective memory. We delivered big size Fasonado slabs in different colours for this renovation. Source...
